BQ 772 – No. 29/2023

Freedom of religion with regard to religious slaughter

Secretary General of WEA testifies in the headquarter of the EU Commission on religious slaughtering and religious freedom

(Bonn, 02.10.2023) The Secretary General of the World Evangelical Alliance (WEA), Archbishop Prof. Dr. Thomas Schirmmacher, participated in a high-level meeting of the European Commission on the topic “Freedom of religion with regard to religious slaughter”.

The meeting took place at the headquarter of the European Commission in Brussels and was attended by politicians and representatives from Muslim, Jewish and Christian communities.

Mose Apelblat summarized the event in The Brussels Times as follows: “The European Commission organised last Thursday a conference with religious communities in the EU with focus on ritual slaughter, a sensitive issue which involves principles of religious freedom and animal welfare concerns. The conference was held in partnership with the Council of Europe, the OSCE and the UN. It brought together 100 representatives of EU Member States and other national authorities, special envoys and coordinators on combating antisemitism and anti-Muslim hatred, representatives of national Jewish, Muslim and Christian communities, international organisations and independent experts.”
